AWWA celebrates Women’s History Month by recognizing the contributions of women to the water industry. We honor their achievements. Women break down barriers every day to participate in the world of water, accomplishing our vision of a better world through better water.

Join us in paying tribute to the many contributions women have made to our industry and communities.